is pleased to announce

THE 1ST FAR EASTERN MEETING IN SOSNOWIEC
(1 SOSNOWIECKIE SPOTKANIA DALEKOWSCHODNIE)

Sosnowiec, 9-10.04.2014

An interdisciplinary academic conference promoting intercultural dialogue, adressed to young scholars, including postgraduate and graduate students, whose research interests focus on the languages, literatures and cultures of Far Eastern countries (especially China and Japan).

The conference will explore a wide spectrum of topics ranging from the ancient civilisations of the Far East to the present-day cultures and languages of this region.

Following the keynote theme of MEETING - DIALOGUE - UNDERSTANDING
we would like to help develop a deeper understanding of China, Japan, and other countries of the Far East in all their cultural and linguistic richness and diversity.

We are planning a peer-reviewed publication of conference papers.

Venue: Modern Languages Centre, ul. Grota Roweckiego 5, 41-205 Sosnowiec, Poland Conference languages: English and Polish
Paper presentations: 20 minutes for the presentation plus 10 minutes for the discussion
